Miles Farrow

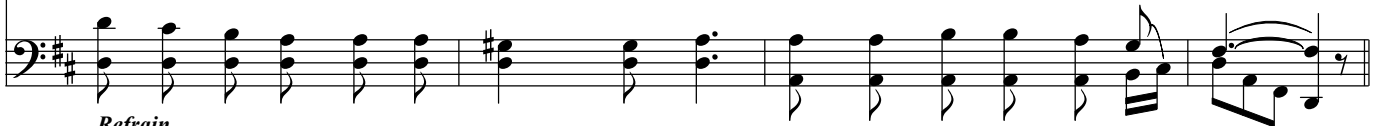

♩ = 85

1. Out - side the inn, in a low man - ger bed, Je - sus was born; Je - sus was born.
2. Out - side the ci - ty that He came to save, There cru - ci - fied, for all He died.
3. Out - side our hearts He is wait - ing to - day, Un - grate - ful hearts, un - think - ing hearts.
4. Let then our hymns reach to Hea - ven's high dome, Tell - ing our joy, ho - li - est joy.
5. Then will our hearts ev - er ec - ho the song: Christ - mas has come, Christ - mas has come.

Out - side the inn, in a rough cat - tle shed, Je - sus our Sav - ior was born.
Pray - ing for those who were most bit - ter foes, Rob - bers on cross - es be - side.
Sor - ry for sin, we will let Him come in, Wel - come Him ere He de - parts.
Ask Him to come in and make us His home, Dwell - ing in each girl and boy.
His love will cheer us and make the weak strong. Ca - rol, for Je - sus has come.

Refrain

Snow on the ground and a frost in the air, Christ - mas has come; Christ - mas has come.

Deck home and church with our ten - der - est care, Ring the bells, Christ - mas has come.
