

Over Yonder in the Palace of the King

Leroy Runyan, 1906

Leroy Runyan

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. When this life of ours is o'er, And its cares op - press no more, When no
2. Ma - ny friends who've gone be - fore, O - ver on the o - ther shore, Lift their
3. O, what hap - pi - ness 'twill be, When we cross the crys - tal sea, And the more to us its sor - rows it can bring, We each o - ther's joys may share, In a hap - py voic - es there His praise to sing; And they beck - on us to come— Join them world and all its cares be - hind us fling; When we meet our Sav - ior there, And a hap - py meet - ing there, O - ver yon - der in the pal - ace of the King. I will in their hap - py home— O - ver yon - der in the pal - ace of the King. I will crown of glo - ry wear, O - ver yon - der in the pal - ace of the King.

Refrain

meet you, I will greet you, And for - ev - er with the ran - somed we shall meet you, I will greet you, And for - ev - er we shall sing, I will meet you, and for - ev - er with the sing; Yes I'll meet you, and I'll greet you, O - ver ran-somed we shall sing; Yes, I'll meet you, and I'll greet you in the pal-ace of the King—yon-der in the pal-ace of the King.