

Prayer, Sweet Prayer

Charles M. Lewis, 1897

Samuel Monroe Vansant

♩ = 97

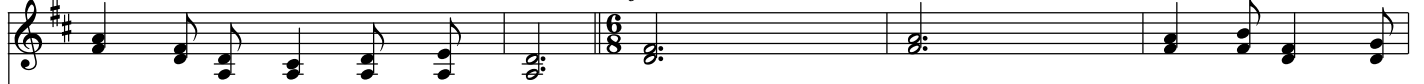

1. How sweet is the bless-ing Our hearts find in prayer! What com - fort and peace it in-
2. How blest the as - sur - ance, When tri - als as-sail, That prayer brings us strength to o'er-
3. The young and the ag - èd Re - joice in its power, The weak and the wea - ry at

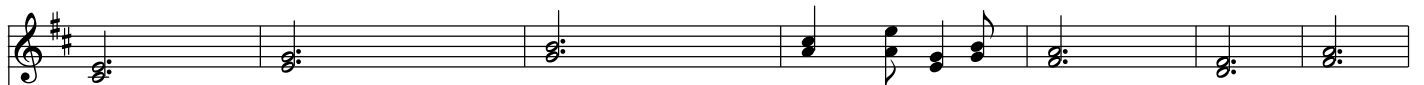

- spires! A ref - uge in sor - row, A sol - ace in care, A
- come; That our plead - ings for suc - cor Shall ev - er pre - vail, Till at heart; Thro' life's toil - some jour - ney, In death's try - ing hour Its shield in temp-ta - tion's fierce fires.

Refrain

length we shall reach that blest home. Prayer, prayer, Balm for wound-ed prom - is - es will not de - part. Prayer, sweet prayer, prayer, sweet prayer hearts; Prayer, prayer, Shield for Sa-tan's darts; Prayer, prayer, Sa-tan's darts; Prayer, sweet prayer, prayer, sweet prayer a - long the way

Safe-guard all the way, Till life's rug-ged path leads up To realms of day.

