

Rejoice and Shout Aloud

Thomas Edwin Vassar, 1889

Isaac H. Bullers

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. Not yet be - neath our cap - tain's feet Lie sin and death, and pain and woe; Not
 2. Yet come it shall, and ev - en now Faith views the vic - to - ry as won; All
 3. Like bu - gle blast, rings clear and strong That pledge of pro - phet, from a - far; He
 4. A - men, Lord Je - sus, on - ward sweep, The lin - gering ag - es wait the sway; The
 5. With yearn - ing heart and lift - ed eye The toil - ers watch and ev - er sing; Thy yet the an - them, clear and sweet, Of Heav'n, a - bove, on earth, be - low.

Refrain

 hearts must yield, all knees must bend To God's be - loved, a - noint - ed Son. shall not fail to right the wrong, The isles shall speed the con - queror's car. Re - scep - ter stretch o'er land and deep, Bring in the gold - en noon - tide day.
 king - dom, glo - ry, power come nigh, Let hal - le - lu - jahs sweet - ly ring.

- joice and shout a - loud, For soon the time will be, When Re - joice and shout a - loud, For soon the time will be, light shall break the cloud, When Christ shall reign su - preme, E - ter - nal - ly.

 When light break the cloud,