

Rejoice, He Is Risen!

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt (1851–1920)

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1923

$\text{♩} = 98$

1. The gold-en light is stream-ing From smil-ing skies of blue; From lof-ty hill and
2. The blos-soms fair are bloom-ing, They fill the world with cheer; The Eas-ter bells are
3. The gold-en light is stream-ing, The dark-ness now is o'er; Ex - alt the ris - en moun-tain rings A mes - sage glad and true; A - wake to joy and glad-ness! Lay ring - ing out In ca - rols sweet and clear. Cre - a - tion's hap - py voic-es The Sav - ior, for He lives to die no more! Swing wide, ye gates im - mor-tal, Ye all your grief a - side; He lives! the Lord of glo-ry lives, Who once for sin - ners won-drous tid - ings tell; He comes, the King tri - um-phand comes! Let earth His prais-es ran - somed hosts pro - claim, "Crown Him, the high and ho-ly One!" A - dore His bless-èd died.

Refrain

swell. Re - joice, re-joyce, He is ris-en! New life to all He doth bring; Re - joice, re-joyce! He name."

lives! Our great vic - to-rious king!