

The Resurrection Morn

George R. Kramer, 1880, alt.

Frank O. Wellcome

♩ = 97 Solo Soprano

1. If we en - ter in - to glo - ry At the res - ur - rect - ion
2. When we see the saints all beam - ing In their crowns and robes of
3. If we see the har - vest glow - ing In the grand e - ter - nal 4. Let us wait for Christ from Hea - ven, As the church in days of light, And in tri - umph sing the sto - ry Of the white, And our loved ones in the gleam - ing, With their rays, And then glad - ly reap from sow - ing In these old; When to us our crowns are giv - en, We will love that ban - ished night, Shall we mur - mur at the forms so pure and bright. When we meet be - yond the tears thro' sor - row's days, Shall we then be heard re - walk the streets of gold; It will be no cause of sleep - ing Till that great re - splen - dent day? Will it sigh - ing, In the home be - yond the gloom, Shall we

Duet

 - pin - ing, Tho' the seed in earth re - main? In that sad - ness That we part - ed when we died, We shall be a cause for weep - ing When our tears are wiped a - way? Let us grieve be - cause of ly - ing In the dark and si - lent tomb? morn - ing's splen - did shin - ing, It will wave in gold - en grain.

 be in per - fect glad - ness, With the psalm - ist sa - tis - fied.

rit. Refrain

wait for Christ from Hea - ven, Let us wait for Christ from Hea - ven, Let us wait for Christ from Hea - ven, Till the re - sur - rect - ion morn.

rit.