

Ride Forth to Conquer

George K. Thompson, 1887

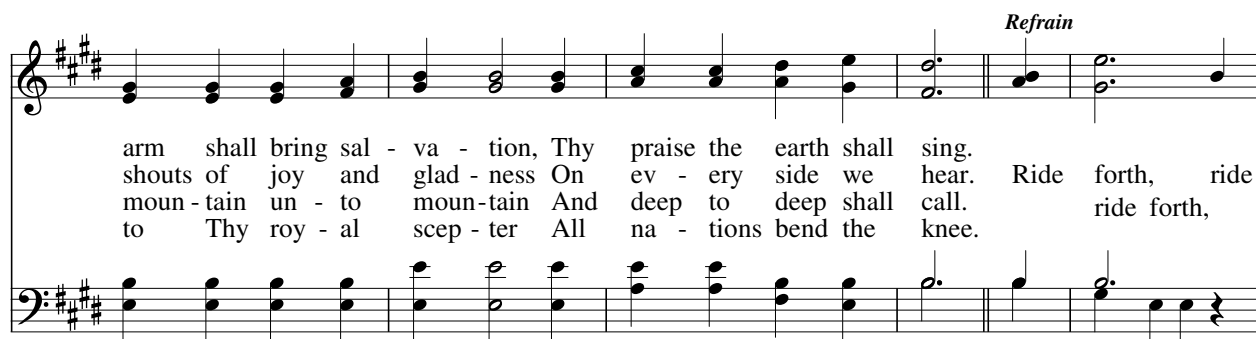

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 114

1. Ride forth, ride forth to con-quer, Thou great and glo - rious King; Thy
2. Ride forth, ride forth to con-quer! Thy cha - riot wheels draw near, And
3. Ride forth, ride forth to con-quer, Thou sov'r - eign Lord of all, Till
4. The dis - tant isles of o - cean Shall stretch their hands to Thee, And arm shall bring sal - va - tion, Thy praise the earth shall sing.

Refrain

shouts of joy and glad - ness On ev - ery side we hear. Ride forth, ride moun - tain un - to moun - tain And deep to deep shall call. ride forth, to Thy roy - al scep - ter All na - tions bend the knee.

forth, In ma-jes-ty and might, Till truth shall spread from pole to pole, And ride forth, in might,

all shall hail its light.