

Scatter Smiles as You Go

R. S. Taylor, 1864

William Batchelder Bradbury

♩=100

1. Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles As you pass on your way, Thro' this world of toil and
2. Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles, 'Tis but lit - tle they cost; But your heart may nev - er
3. Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles O'er the grave of the past, Where the or - phan's trea - sure
4. Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles, O'er the young who have strayed, From the path where once they
5. Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles, as you pass on your way Through this world of toil and care; Like the beams of the morn-ing that gent-ly play, They will leave a sun - light there.

know What a joy they may car - ry to wea-ry ones Who are pale with want and woe.
lies; In the tear drop that glis - tens there, light will shine, As the rain - bow paints the skies.
trod; You may lead to the fount-ain of truth a - gain, You may bring them home to God.
care; Like the beams of the morn-ing that gent-ly play, They will leave a sun - light there.

Refrain

Scat - ter smiles, bright smiles, Scat - ter smiles as you pass on your way; Scat - ter Scat - ter smiles, bright smiles, Scat - ter

smiles, bright smiles, Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles.
smiles, bright smiles, Scat-ter smiles, bright smiles,