

Shout and Sing

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby (1820-1915)

Bentley DeForest Ackley, 1920

J=110

1. The love of God, whose sac - red bond, Nor life nor death can se - ver, Thro'
2. If one in Christ, what joy is ours, Thro' faith His smile be - hold-ing, We
3. Yes, one in Christ, and He in us, The hope of end - less glo - ry, We
4. To sin - ners now, we'll glad-ly tell His love so free - ly flow-ing, And grace di - vine has made us one, In Christ the Lord for - ev - er.

Refrain

dwell se - cure, our an - chor sure, His arm our souls en - fold-ing. Then jour - ney on while sweet-er grows Re - demp - tion's grand old sto - ry.
help them find the land of song To which we now are go - ing.

shout and sing, Though time may bring Its clouds of care and sor-row; The gold-en ray they veil to - day Will bright-er shine to - mor-row.

