

Some Joyful Day

Thoro Harris, 1906

Thoro Harris

♩=110

1. Some day, when all life's surges And storms of time are o'er, Our bark shall safe-ly
2. Some day, in realms of glo-ry My Sav-ior I shall see, And tell the won-drous
3. Some day, I'll meet the loved ones Who long have passed a-way, And ne-ver-more be an-chor On Ca-naan's peace-ful shore; Some day, when all the tu-mult And sto-ry Of Him who died for me; Some day I'll join the cho-rus Of par-ted Through Heav'n's e-ter-nal day; Some day, ar-rayed in bright-ness, The din of war shall cease, The saints shall all be ga-thered With-in the port of peace.

Refrain
an-gel choirs a-bove, Some day with all the ran-somed I'll sing His death-less love. Some Lamb shall I be-hold; Some day in robes of white-ness I'll walk the streets of gold.

day, O joy-ful day! This world shall pass a-way; Up-on that fair ce-les-tial O joy-ful day! shall pass a-way;

shore, We'll meet to part no more.
ce-les-tial shore, to part no more.