1. Some day, when all life's surg - es And storms of time are o'er, Our
2. Some day, in realms of glo - ry My Sav - ior I shall see, And 3. Some day, I'll meet the loved ones Who long have passed a - way, And bark shall safe - ly an - chor On Ca - naan's peace-ful shore; Some day, when all the tell the won - drous sto - ry Of Him who died for me; Some day I'll join the ne - ver - more be par - ted Through Heav'n's e - ter - nal day; Some day, ar - rayed in tu - mult And din of war shall cease, The saints shall all be ga - thered With-cho - rus Of an - gel choirs a - bove, Some day with all the ran - somed I'll bright-ness, The Lamb shall I be - hold; Some day in robes of white-ness I'll

Refrain

- in the port of peace. Some day, O joy - ful day! This world shall pass a-sing His death - less love. Some day, O joy - ful day! This world shall pass a-walk the streets of gold. Some day, O joy - ful day! This world shall pass a-

- way;
- way;
Up - on that fair ce - les - tial shore,
ce - les - tial shore,
We'll meet to part no
