

Speak, Lord, in the Stillness - SPEAK, LORD (SWERD)

E. May Grimes, 1868-1927

Scott Werdebaugh, b. 1951

Quietly earnest (♩=108)

Speak, Lord, in the still - ness, While I wait on Thee;
For the words Thou speak - est, They are life in - deed;
All to Thee is yield - ed, I am not my own;
Speak, Thy ser - vant hear - eth, Be not si - lent, Lord;
Fill me with the knowl - edge Of Thy glo - rious will;

Hushed my heart to lis - ten, In ex - pec - tan - cy.
Liv - ing bread from heav - en, Now my spir - it feed!
Bliss - ful, glad sur - ren - der, I am Thine a - lone.
Waits my soul up - on Thee For the quick - ening word.
All Thine own good pleas - ure In Thy child ful - fill. A-
