

There Is a Land Mine Eye Hath Seen

Arranged from Gurdon Robins, 1843

Daniel Brink Towner, 1897

♩=130

1. There is a land mine eye hath seen In vi - sions of en - rap - tured thought,
2. A land up - on whose bliss - ful shore There rests no sha - dow, falls no stain;
3. Its skies are not like earth - ly skies, With vary - ing blues of shade and light;
4. There sweeps no des - o - lat - ing wind A - cross the calm, se - rene a - bode.

So bright that all which spread be - tween Is with its ra - diant glor - ies fraught.
There those who meet shall part no more, And those long part - ed meet a - gain.
It hath no need of suns to rise To dis - si - pate the gloom of night.
The wan - derer there a home may find With - in the par - a - dise of God.

Refrain

Oh, land of love, of joy and light, Thy glor - ies gild earth's dark - est
Oh, land of love, of joy and light, Thy glor - ies gild earth's dark - est night; Thy tran - quil shore, we, too, shall night (earth's dark - est night) Thy tran - quil shore, see, When day shall break and sha - dows flee.

we, too, shall see, When day shall break
