The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef and contains the melody. The middle staff is in bass clef and contains the bass line. The bottom staff is also in bass clef and contains a simple accompaniment line. The lyrics are written below the top staff. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and a common time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a final note that has a fermata. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes. The bottom staff has a few notes, including a whole note and a half note.
