

There's a Light in the Bible

William Henry Wonder, 1880

William Henry Wonder

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. There's a light in the Bi-ble for me, Yes, for me, in the Book, I am
2. There's a light in the Bi-ble for thee, With a beau-ti-ful, beau-ti-ful
3. There's a light in the Bi-ble for all, It is beam-ing, all lov-ing and told; Oh, the light of its love In its rich-ness I see, As in beam; 'Tis the light for thy way That its dan-gers may flee, Oh, then, kind; It will scat-ter the gloom Of the doubts that en-thrall; 'Tis the faith I its pag-es un-fold. There's a light in the catch its bright, beau-ti-ful gleam. There's a light in the Bi-ble, there's a prom-ise, who seek it shall find. There's a light in the Bi-ble, there's a

Refrain

Bi-ble, That will shine thro' the val-ley of death; There's a light for all. There's a light in the Bi-ble, That will shine thro' the val-ley of death.

light in the Bi-ble, there's a light for all.