1. We must wait in this sha - dow-y land Till the day shall dawn; We must
2. We must live full of kind - ness and love, Till the day shall dawn; We must
3. We must com - fort the hearts that are sad, Till the day shall dawn; We must 4. We must watch for our Je - sus to come, Till the day shall dawn; We must march with the brave pil - grim band, Till the day shall dawn; Till the day shall trust in our Fa - ther a - bove, Till the day shall dawn; Till the day shall help them to trust and be glad, Till the day shall dawn; Till the day shall wait for the sweet rest of home, Till the day shall dawn; Till the day shall dawn, Till the day shall dawn, Till morn - ing light shall scat - ter night, And the dawn, Till the day shall dawn, Till far and near the morn ap - pear, And the dawn, Till the day shall dawn, Till sor - row's night shall fade in light, And the dawn, Till the day shall dawn, Till God's dear Son shall say, "Well done," And the day-star a - rise in our hearts.

day-star a - rise in our hearts.
