

Turn a New Leaf for Me

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1905

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 88

1. Turn a new leaf for me, Fa - ther, I pray; This one is blot - ted, O
2. Turn a new leaf for me, spot - less and bright; Hold Thou my hand as Thy
3. Turn a new leaf for me; then, line by line, Help me to co - py the
4. Turn a new leaf for me, Fa - ther a - bove; Place there new proofs of Thy take it a - way; Cleanse all its stains in the blood of the cross;

bid - ding I write; Teach me with pa - tience that ne - ver shall tire, pat - tern di - vine; O that Thine eye some re - sem - blance might see mer - cy and love; Then shall this page of my life - book be bright,

Refrain

Let me in Je - sus find gain for my loss.
Let Thine own Spir - it the re - cord in - spire. Turn a new leaf for me, Fa - ther, I pray;
To the sweet les - sons in - scribed there for me.
Judged by the test of e - ter - ni - ty's light.

Turn a new leaf in my life - book to - day; Par - don me gra - cious - ly,

Deal with me won - drous - ly, Turn a new leaf in my life - book to - day.

