

Waiting for the Passport

Angeline Asby Fuller Fischer, 1874

Frank French

♩=95 Solo

1. I am wait - ing, on - ly wait-ing, I am wait-ing ev - ery day, For my
2. Life has brought me much of sor - row, Wea-ry toil, and hea-vy loss, And my
3. Now my pil - grim-age is end-ed, All my la - bor is com - plete, Fast the pass - port to that coun-try Where the pure and ho - ly stay; Where the feet oft slipped and fal - tered While I bore sin's hea-vy cross; But I sands of time are slip - ping From be - neath my fee-ble feet; But with air is al - ways bal - my, And the sky is al - ways clear, And from found the Rock of Age-es, All my hopes on Him I cast, And He calm and trust - ful spir - it, And a heart a - glow with love, I am my - riad harps and voic-es Mu - sic falls up-on the ear. proves a sure foun - da - tion That up - holds me to the last. Wait-ing! wait-ing!

Duet

Refrain

wait - ing for my pass-port To that bet - ter world a - bove.

wait-ing ev - ery day For my pass-port to that coun-try, Where the pure and ho-ly stay.