

Walking the Golden Streets

A. S. Doughty, 1880

George Crawford Hugg

♩ = 100

1. Who, who are these clothed in gar - ments pure and white? Walk - ing the streets of that
 2. These, these are they who through trib - u - la - tion came, Bear - ing the cross— who en -
 3. There - fore they dwell with the Sav - ior they be - hold, Walk through the streets that are ci - ty fair and bright, Dwell - ing in light where no burn - ing rays are known,

 - dured re - proach and shame; Hav - ing their robes washed in blood of Cal - vary's Lamb, paved with pur - est gold, Freed from all sor - row, they shout o'er con - flict passed,

Refrain

Stand - ing near the great e - ter - nal throne. Walk - ing thro' the There - fore do they bear the con - queror's palm. Walk - ing thro' the streets, thro' the Praise to Je - sus— vic - to - ry at last. Walk - ing thro' the streets, thro' the streets, walk - ing thro' the streets, beau - ti - ful gold - en streets, Walk - ing thro' the streets, thro' the beau - ti - ful gold - en streets,

Walk - ing thro' the streets of the New Je - ru - sa - lem.
 Walk - ing thro' the streets, thro' the beau - ti - ful gold - en streets,