

We Will Walk thru the Streets of the City

Garfield Thomas Haywood (1880-1931)

Garfield Thomas Haywood

♩=100

1. We now walk thru the val - ley and sha - dow, Thru a 2. There'll be no more pain, sin, sickness nor sor - row In that
3. From the North, East and West they shall en - ter; From the 4. Then we'll wade thru God's e - ter - nal glo - ry, Thru the 5. Let us then be kind, true and faith - ful, To our world full of la - bor and strife; But some day we shall walk with our Sav - ior Robed in ci - ty where nights ne - ver come; Where the an - gel of death ne - ver en - ters In our South, too, a host shall a - rise; Then will child - ren of A - bra - ham ga - ther To hold a re - fields of His un - end - ing love; View - ing scenes ev - er ris - ing be - fore us Eter - ni - Sav - ior, Re - deem - er and king; Do - ing all He gives us to do glad - ly, And His

Refrain

ev - er - last - ing life.
blest e - ter - nal home.
- un - ion in the skies. We will walk thru the streets of the ci - ty, Where our
- ty a - lone can prove, of the ci - ty prais - es ev - er sing.

loved ones have gone on be - fore; We will go thru the gates of the ci - ty, En - ter have gone on be - fore; of the ci - ty, to go out no more.

no more.