

When I Go Home

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1913

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. A lit - tle while, and then the sum-mer day, When I go home; 'Tis lone-some
2. Work ceas - es not in sun - shine or in show'r, Till I go home; But in the
3. All will be well, and all be hap - pi - ness, When I go home; The wan-der-
4. I'll meet the loved ones I have lost a - while, When I go home; And, best of win - ter now, but 'twill be May, When I go home; Be - yond the gloom of still - ness of the twi - light hour, I dream of home; And when the night wind

- ings all o'er, and lone - li - ness, When I go home; There will be light at all, I'll see my Sav - ior smile, When I go home; Oh, what a joy thro' moor and fen I see the wel - come warm of those who wait for me, When I go moans a - cross the wold, I feel no dread of dark, or chill of cold— I dream of e - ven-tide for me, The light that ne - ver was on land or sea, When I go all e - ter - ni - ty, To sing the praise of Him who died for me, When I go home, when I go home.

home, I dream of home.
home, when I go home.
home, when I go home.