

When You Hear His Voice

Laurene Highfield, 1919

S. L. Ellis

♩=98

1. On the moun - tain of sin you have wan - dered a - way, Storm and
2. Quick - ly an - swer the Lord who is seek - ing for you, Go to
3. Thro' the dark - ness of night, He is call - ing to you, He who tem - pest a - bout you beat; You have strug - gled a - lone through the meet Him with thank - ful heart; Fol - low Him to your home, as He knows all His sheep by name; Tho' your sins have been great, and your deep mi - ry clay, Sharp rocks have bruised your wea - ry feet.

bids you to do. And from its shel - ter ne'er de - part. You may en - ter the Shep - herd's mer - its are few, His love will ev - er be the same.

fold, You may make its peace and com - fort your choice, Safe for - ev - er from storm and His fold, your wise choice, cold, If you fol - low when you hear His voice.

from cold, His voice.

