

Whosoever Shall Call

David A. Moxey, 1896

Ira David Sankey

$\text{♩} = 113$

1. "Who-so - ev - er shall call on the name of the Lord," Who - so - ev - er shall
2. "Who-so - ev - er" means me, "who - so - ev - er" means you, "Who-so - ev - er" means
3. Bu - t how shall I call, then? By faith with thy heart, Un - to all who thus 4. An - d when shall I call? Lo, the mes - sage is "Now"; An - d when will He 5. R - e - demp-tion is fin - ished— you've on - ly to ask; All the do - ing the call, "shall be saved"; O hear the glad mes - sage pro - claimed in the Word, Three an - y - one here; Then come un - to Him with a pen - i - tent heart, And call He is nigh; Nigh to bless, and to save, and His Spir - it im - part, And to an - swer my cry? The dy - ing thief asked Him; the an - swer was "Thou E'en to - Sav - ior hath done; Then be - lieve, and re - ceive what your Fa - ther be - stows Thro' the times from high Heav-en 'tis waved.

Refrain

call on His name while He's near.
calm with His love ev - ery sigh. Lord, I call, and I mean it; I call yet a - gain; I con -
- day shalt be with Me" on high.
won - der - ful gift of His Son.

- fess Thee my Sav - ior and Lord; As I do so, I'm saved! God says it; A - men! I be - lieve Him and rest on His Word.