

Will You Be There, and I?

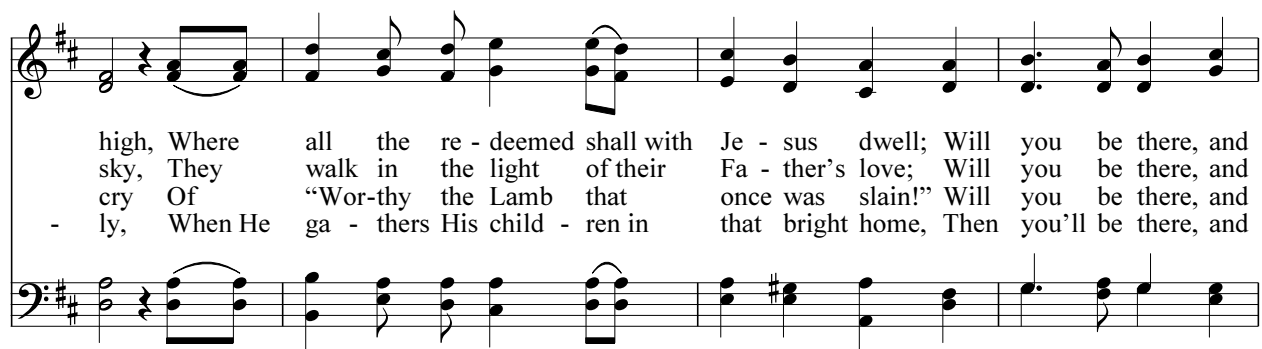

Margaret Chalmers Hood Wilson, 1865

Margaret Chalmers Hood Wilson

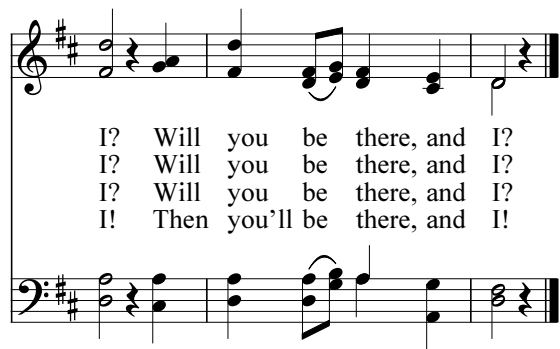

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. We know there's a bright and a glor - ious home, A - way in the hea - vens
2. In robes of white, over streets of gold, Be - neath a cloud-less
3. From ev - ery king - dom of earth they come, To join the tri - umph-al
4. If we take the lov - ing Sav - ior now, And fol - low Him faith - ful-high, Where all the re - deemed shall with Je - sus dwell; Will you be there, and sky, They walk in the light of their Fa - ther's love; Will you be there, and cry Of "Wor - thy the Lamb that once was slain!" Will you be there, and

- ly, When He ga - thers His child - ren in that bright home, Then you'll be there, and

I? Will you be there, and I?
I? Will you be there, and I?
I? Will you be there, and I?
I! Then you'll be there, and I!