

Give of Your Sunshine

Annie M. Sexauer, 1906

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩ = 90

1. O give of your sun-shine to o - thers! The world's full of sor - row and care, And
2. O give of your sun-shine to o - thers, 'Tis bet - ter than sil - ver or gold; For
3. O give of your sun-shine to o - thers, Some soul to right paths it may win; May ma - ny a heart will be light - ened, If you will your sun - shine but share. You ma - ny of life's rich - est trea - sures Can be nei - ther pur - chased or sold. When strength - en a weak one that's tempt - ed, And keep him from yield - ing to sin. A know not what heart may be faint - ing 'Neath grief you may help to al - lay; O Je - sus blest earth with His pre - sence, It was not of wealth that He gave, But word, fit - ly spok - en, has pow - er To up - lift and strength - en the heart; To bind up the poor brok - en - heart - ed, And give them your sun - shine to - day.

Refrain

sym - pa - thy, ten - der - ness, mer - cy, And love that has po - wer to save. O wea - ry and hea - vi - ly la - den, 'Twill cour - age and com - fort im - part.

give of your sun-shine to o - thers And bright-en the world while you may; There's life-giv-ing pow-er in sun-shine, O scat-ter it free-ly to - day.

