

Records

Eleanor W. Long, 1908

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=110

1. There will come a day, some-time, some-time, When the books will be o - pened in
2. In that re - cord there, some - where, some-where, You are writ - ing your re - cord each
3. There's "a - no - ther book," some - where, some-where; 'Tis the Lamb's book of life, pure and Heav'n; When the Judge will sit on the great white throne, And the sons of men will stand day; And what - e'er it be, whe-ther dark or fair, As 'tis writ - ten there, it will fair; And His blood a - lone can for sin a - tone, And pre - sent you fault - less be-forth a - lone, To re - ceive the sen - tence giv'n, To re - ceive the sen - tence giv'n.

stand up there, In the re - cord book for aye, In the re - cord book for aye.
- fore the throne, If your name's found writ - ten there, If your name's found writ - ten there.

Refrain
Re-cords, re - cords, re - cords, We are writ-ing ev-ery day! Writ-ing, writ-ing, writ-ing, As we tra-vel life's high - way! Glo-ry! glo-ry! glo - ry! We shall dwell be-yond earth's strife, If our re-cord's clear, and our names ap-pear In the Lamb's great book of life.