

Sunshine on the Hill

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1902

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=115

1. There are sha-dows in the val-ley, Where our tir-ed feet must go; But we
2. There are sha-dows in the val-ley, But we breathe the sweet per-fume Of the
3. Oh, the sha-dows in the val-ley Like a dream will pass a-way; They will hear the peace-ful wa-ters, As they mur-mur soft and low; And our Shep-herd whis-pers ros-es on the mount-ain, In their love-ly ver-nal bloom; And a-gain our Shep-herd van-ish at the dawn-ing Of the bright and glor-ious day; Ev-en now there comes an gent-ly As He leads us on-ward still; "There are sha-dows in the val-ley, But 'tis sun-shine on the whis-pers, As He leads us on-ward still: "There are sha-dows in the val-ley, But 'tis sun-shine on the e-cho, And we feel its ma-gic thrill: "There are sha-dows in the val-ley, But 'tis sun-shine on the hill."

Refrain

hill." Sun-shine on the hill, There is sun-shine on the hill "There are sha-dows in the val-ley, But 'tis hill."

sun-shine on the hill."