

Wave the Banners

Edith Sanford Tillotson, 1909

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=100

1. Wave the ban-ners of joy to-day, For Christ the King is born! An-gels throng-ing the
2. Wave the ban-ners of love to-day, For Christ has come to reign! Hear the words that the heav'n-ly way, Brought tid-ings thro' the morn: "Peace, good-will," is their wel-come cry, an-gels say, And join the hap-py strain. "Peace, good-will," is the mes-sage clear,

"Glo-ry to God on high!" Wave the ban-ners, O wave them high, For Christ the King is born!
"Glo-ry!" O tid-ings dear; Wave the ban-ners, O wave them here, For Christ has come to reign!

Refrain

Wave the ban-ners to-day, Let them mer-ri-ly sway, Bear-ing the joy-ful tid-ings
Wave the ban-ners to-day, Let them mer-ri-ly sway,

All a-long our way. Wave the ban-ners to-day, Let them mer-ri-ly sway,
Wave the ban-ners to-day, Let them mer-ri-ly sway,

Christ is born this Christ-mas morn, So wave the ban-ners to-day.